

RACQUETBALL UNIT: EXAM

Name: _____

TRUE - FALSE: Completely cover the T with a "dot" if the statement is TRUE or completely cover the F with a "dot" if the statement is FALSE.

- | | | | |
|---|---|-----|---|
| T | F | 1. | The game of racquetball experienced tremendous growth during the 1970's and became very popular. |
| T | F | 2. | In a regulation game of racquetball, the first player to score 15 points (and ahead by 1 points) is the winner. |
| T | F | 3. | The server should move to the center court area immediately after serving the ball. |
| T | F | 4. | Short serves and long serves are the most common types of fault serves. |
| T | F | 5. | Two types of passing shots are cross-court and down the line or wall. |
| T | F | 6. | The individual receiving can score points. |
| T | F | 7. | AARA rules require individuals to wear protective eye guards while playing. |
| T | F | 8. | The player serving or the player receiving can call a hinder. |
| T | F | 9. | A non-front serve is one type or example of a service fault. |
| T | F | 10. | The "side-by-side" formation used in doubles play is the easier to master than the "I" formation. |

FILL-IN-THE-BLANKS: Place the correct response or term in the appropriate blank(s).

1. There are three different types of games that can be played in racquetball. These involve the number of players. Name the three types of games.

2. Various types of serves should be used in playing the game of racquetball. Name four types of serves that have been introduced and explained during this course.

3. Name four types of fault serves.

4. There are seven types of Dead-Ball Hinders, which can occur during a game. Name four of these:

5. Name four types of out serves.

MATCHING: Place the letter of the best response in the blank next to the statement that best describes said response.

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| A. Kill Shot | B. Dead-Ball Hinder | C. Service Zone |
| D. Short Serve | E. Play Continues | F. Passing Shot |
| G. Loss of Service | H. Point | I. Long Serve |
| J. Ceiling Serve | K. Doubles | L. Non-Front Serve |

- | | | |
|-------|-----|---|
| _____ | 1. | Player A serves the ball, B's return of service strikes A in the back of the leg. |
| _____ | 2. | Player B attempts to serve, but the ball contacts the side wall before hitting the front wall and rebounding into the backcourt area. |
| _____ | 3. | The area bordered by the service line and the short line. |
| _____ | 4. | During play, Player A, who has served, hits a return, which rebounds off the front wall and strikes their racket. |
| _____ | 5. | Player B's serve rebounds from the front wall, bounces on the floor back of the short line and contacts the left side wall before Player A attempts to return the ball. |
| _____ | 6. | Following a legal serve by Player A, Player B's return bounces on the floor on the way to the front wall. |
| _____ | 7. | Player A serves the ball, but the rebound is not long enough to carry the ball over the short line on the fly. |
| _____ | 8. | An offensive shot which is hit low on the front wall so the rebounding will ball bounce two times very quickly. |
| _____ | 9. | A game in which the players can utilize the "side-by-side" formation. |
| _____ | 10. | Player B's serve rebounds from the front wall and contacts the sidewall and back wall before bouncing on the floor. |